

Richard – Production Planning Manager

Richard masterfully coordinates the complex dance between supply chain and production. As Production Planning Manager, he oversees supplier audits and certifications, ensures the seamless alignment of supplier and client delivery schedules, and supports customer audits with professional expertise. Richard' s proactive communication and day-to-day supplier management are key to maintaining the operational excellence our clients depend on.